

Sustainable Shipping Awards 2009 15th July, Tower Hotel, London

www.sustainableshipping.com/awards

Set in the middle of the pivotal MEPC 59 week, the Sustainable Shipping Awards Dinner provides the ideal opportunity to meet like minded colleagues and entertain key clients.

The inaugural Sustainable Shipping Awards celebrate the efforts that are being made to address and improve the environmental legacy of the shipping industry.

Following a tremendous response, the short-listed nominations are now with the internationally recognised judging panel and winners will be announced on the evening of the 15th July at the awards dinner hosted by Roger Harrabin, BBC Environmental Correspondent.

For short-listed nominations please see

www.sustainableshipping.com/awards/categories

What the industry says:

"The Sustainable Shipping Awards, focus on raising the bar in terms of encouraging sound business practices and not on regulation and enforcement."
Vaughan Pomeroy, Technical Director, Lloyds Register

"By increasing awareness about these issues through the Sustainable Shipping Awards, it is hoped that we will move one step further on the road to making the world a better place in which to live, and do business in." Dr Simon Walmsley, Head of Marine, WWF UK

"We look forward to recognising and rewarding those companies and individuals who are taking such pioneering steps within the marine industry." Dr Jean Otto de Kat, Head of Innovation, A.P. Moller-Maersk