

Preparing for Copenhagen...

What effect will the UN's Copenhagen climate change conference have on shipping? How can the industry meet the challenge?

These issues and more will be addressed by industry, legal, financial and political specialists at the Climate Change, Carbon Emissions and Shipping Conference on Monday, 16 November 2009, at Norton Rose LLP, 3 More London Riverside, London SE1 2AQ.

Participants include:

Ed Miliband, Secretary of State for Energy and Climate Change
Martin Ferstl, General Manager (Strategy and Planning), Stasco
Martin Stopford, Managing Director, Clarksons plc
Abyd Karmali, Global Head of Carbon Emissions, Bank of America Merrill Lynch
Mark Major, European Commission's Environment Directorate-General
Peter Boyd, Carbon War Room
Tim Yeo MP, Chairman, parliamentary Environmental Audit Committee
Eivind Vagslid, IMO
John Aitken, SEAaT
Rob Ashdown, British Chamber of Shipping
Rob Lomas, Intercargo
Peter Swift, Intertanko

Sessions will deal with:

- A global warming overview
- Finding a framework for the industry
- A regional solution?
- Making a trading scheme work
- The greening of ships and ports
- Turning a crisis into an opportunity

For a complete conference pack, including registration (£350 + VAT), contact the conference organiser, Helen Davis, on helendaviseurope@aol.com

Included in the conference registration fee is a half-day workshop on carbon trading, to be conducted by Norton Rose LLP and Barclays Capital on 17 November 2009

